

Portals to the Spiritual Dimension of the Earth & Ourselves

Experiential workshop
with Andrej Loncar

August 10th–12th Friday 7pm-9pm
Saturday 9am-7pm, Sunday 9am-6pm

An invisible spiritual dimension – the breath of creation – gives life to all physical forms and permeates everything within our physical world: our bodies, the planet, animals, and plants. Aspects of the spiritual dimension manifest in different locations of the Earth's landscapes and within us, depending on their respective function.

In this workshop we will explore different aspects and functions of the spiritual dimension within the Bay Area landscapes and their manifestation within us. Through various methods of perception and interactive collaboration with the land we will awaken and activate the dormant essence of this land and the corresponding spiritual functions within us.

The process of re-connecting with our roots that streams from the spiritual dimension of the Earth is a potent therapeutic process. When we engage in a collaborative relationship with the essence of landscapes, they gently mirror our own deepest essence, and shed light and love on our traumas, fears, and insecurities, which lead to emotional opening and brings upon mutual healing, integration, and transformation.

Location: (Fri. evening San Francisco - TBA, Sat. and Sun. in many landscapes of the Bay Area)

Andrej Loncar is pioneering the foundation of a society that rests upon highest spiritual values – his work integrates reawakening of people's ability to perceive the invisible dimensions of the Earth, her landscapes, and us, with growing into one's full potential, and implementation of the individual soul's mission in order to live and create in harmony with the sources of life.

Andrej Loncar

For over ten years Andrej has been guiding and training adults and children to grow into their full potential and make a contribution to the world that is equivalent to their potential. For the past two years, through his intensive experiential training and lectures, Andrej has been teaching people to accurately perceive, feel, and see the invisible spiritual identity and energetic structure that is an integral part of all of us, the space around us, and the Earth with its living landscapes; and to collaborate with the consciousness of the planet.

Andrej has also been working with families to establish new functioning dynamics and follow developmental needs based on communication with the spirit world, and find proper use of individual talents. Through his consultations Andrej works with people and their living/working spaces to harmonize the spiritual, emotional, and energetic activity, purpose, and coexistence between people, land, and living/work space. He has also consulted for schools to assist in developing their vision and holistic approach to teaching and guiding children in their coming of age journeys and embracing their life calls.

Andrej, with his wife Maja, co-founded an organization 'Breath of Creation' to synchronize life of humanity with the spiritual dimension that permeates everything.
